DALLAS COCKTAIL GUIDE

Uptown

Parliament (2418 Allen St.)
Chic space, incredibly nice staff, and show-stopping cocktails. A+.

Standard Pour (2900 McKinney)
Great looking bar, interesting cocktails. They even serve a GIANT ($100) moscow mule!

Downtown

Midnight Rambler (1530 Main St.)
Fantastic ambiance, a little scene-y. Nestled in the Joule Hotel. If you want to skip the can-be-crowded bar, lounge in the lobby where a traveling bartender will make you a drink from his well-stocked cocktail cart.

Bishop Arts District

Parker Barrows (344 W. Davis St.)
Perfect space for nice afternoons, with its outdoor bar seating and well-designed interior.

Deep Ellum

High & Tight (2701 Main St.)
Barbershop with a cocktail bar in the back. Spacious but cozy. Some of the best cocktails around.

Armoury DE (2714 Elm St.)
A little snobby, but the cocktails are fantastic.

Twenty Seven (2901 Elm St.)
Super-nice staff but the cocktails can be a little underwhelming. Stop in if you're in the nabe.

Black Swan (2708 Elm St.)
No cocktail menus here—they whip up a drink based on your preferences alone. Two thumbs way up.

University Park

DISH (8611 Hilcrest Ave.)
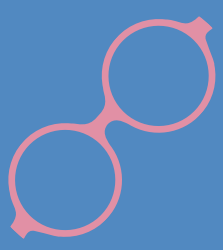
More restaurant than bar, but tasty cocktails and a menu full of things to nibble while you sip.

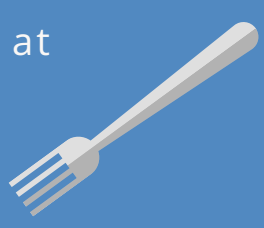
BEYOND THE SIP!

Window shop in the trendy Bishop Arts District! Don't forget to stop into Emporium Pies for a sweet treat.



Get schooled in the history of the JFK assasination at the Grassy Knoll + Sixth Floor Museum.

Nosh on some super-tasty pizza at Cane Rosso in Deep Ellum.



Go antiquing in Waxahachie (45 minutes from Dallas) and grab a bite at lunch hub The Dove's Nest while you're there.
